

Digital Display Unit Usage Policy

The primary use for the digital display unit installed in the Library's main sitting area will be for library display and library programming. This unit will not be used for daily programming, and personal requests will not be granted.

Anyone or any business wishing to have an advertisement displayed should see the Library Director for information and pricing.